

Neil R. Jones, B.Sc., LL.B.

T: (905) 525-2341

F: (905) 525-6300

Title: Partner / Retired 2017

Practice Area(s): Personal Injury

Law School: University of Toronto

Bar Admission: Ontario 1978

Retired 2017 - Neil Jones / Partner at Mackesy Smye LLP. Since his call to the bar in 1978, Mr. Jones has conducted hundreds of trials before judges and juries in both civil and criminal cases. In addition, he has been successful in many appeals before the Ontario Court of Appeal and also has appeared successfully in the Supreme Court of Canada.

In recent years, his practice has been mainly focused on personal injury cases arising out of motor vehicle accidents, falls, and actions against the police and other public authorities. His experience in the civil and criminal courts is of considerable value in obtaining excellent results for clients in settlements and also in cases which proceed to trial.

Mr. Jones is past president of the Hamilton Criminal Lawyers Association, past director of the Ontario Criminal Lawyers Association, a former trustee of the Hamilton Law Association and a former director of the John Howard Society. He has also been a member of a number of Boards unrelated to his legal practice. He has been an invited speaker at conferences and seminars of the Hamilton Law Association and the Hamilton Criminal Lawyers Association.

In addition, Mr. Jones was a member of five Canadian champion water polo teams. He continues to believe that physical fitness is important for professional and personal success.

